like nothing i have every read before

By mikedamedic

After reading Shrimps and Caviar I started to review my own failed relationships including 2 failed marrages. I have god in my life, but my wives have not. I believe a lot of conflicts arose from that. I didn't see it until now. What a great book and hope it changes the way I see and get into relationship. I hope he comes out with another book so I can learn more. Great job with this one.

Wait for the revision...Maybe! (Tough Love Review)

By Jacqueline D. Turner aka LadyinBlue

Although the aurhor's intent was valid, the content was hard to follow as if rambling without a dialogue to follow.

Too many typographical errors as well as grammatical. No contextual relationship to Shrimps and/or Caviar that I could find or was eluded to in this print.

Nice try to a biography tho!

Writes From His Heart

By Daisy Pemberton

The author tells his story from his heart. A man of God who does not sugar coat any of his journeys. He keeps it real to the very end. When reading this book, examine yourself and don't be quick to judge.... read and understand the author's writing on his experiences from childhood to adulthood.
