In part 2 of That Unbreakable Love, Shaniqua and Ronny struggle to deal with the fact that the kids have grown up in more ways than one. Finding out that someone is indeed expecting is a hard pill for Ronny to swallow and it causes conflict between him and Shaniqua.

Ray'Shun is ready to make a change in his life, but with Trinity's insecurities, she only pushes him away and to another state. She'd cried her last tear and is ready to move on, but will Ray'Shun return to claim what's his? Or will he really mean it when he says, it's over?

All Shaniyah wants is for her parents to see the good in Kush. Destiny might be quiet about her relationship, but Shaniyah isn't and she tries everything in her power to get them to see that Kush isn't as bad as her brother made him seem. Even without him around, she still puts him on a pedestal and Ronny doesn't like it one bit.

Ok Read

Not as well done as the original. The story was a bit draggy in the middle. The decision to have a thirteen year old have a baby is not a well thought out decision. The writing needs more zip, action, and better developed characters with more interesting storylines.

Tonya- Review

Yes I love it from the beginning to the end. Shaniyah spoke the truth but she still needs that butt best. Shaniqua treated Destiny different but beat Shaniyah tale. Trinity I like her and Rashun together but she to winney and then didn't believe yes he has cheated in the past. I knew that Alesha wanted Ronny. Robyn was right. Man need to be involved in Destiny life. Monae was a thot. I can't wait to see what happens when Kush goes to Ronny house. I would like to read more about Cornell and star.
