The Biblical Metanarrative traces the storyline of the Bible from Genesis to Revelation. It is the triumphant story of God ruling as king over his realm. He does so for his own glory in an all-out war with Satan and his rival kingdom of evil. The key to God's ultimate victory is the incarnation of his Son, his life as the perfect human, his atoning death, and his resurrection, as the first fruits of those who will receive new bodies fit for life in the new Creation. Jesus' followers are currently living out Christ's commission to them to give every ethnic group the opportunity to repent and receive the holy and empowered life of the Spirit of God. This presentation's uniqueness is its selection of the stories that drive the narrative forward and the uncovering of the divine logic that connects those stories to make a sweeping whole, showing One God, One Plan, and One Story.

Tell the bible story in as few or many words as you need.

By Richard Landerman

Bill "Jax" Jackson teaches us with this book how to tell the story of the bible (whole or in part) in queue at the grocery store, over half an hour at the coffee shop, in a sermon, or over several days giving lectures at seminars.

Big Picture

By Greg Carlson

Bill Jackson accomplished what he set out to do--draw out the metanarrative of Scripture from Genesis to Revelation. I would have liked to have seen this keyed more tightly to the kingdom of God. I believe that a distinction needs to be drawn between the messianic kingdom of God and the spiritual kingdom of God. I also believe that the distinction between the millenium and the new heaven and new earth needs to be more sharply focused. Submitted by Greg Carlson, author of God's Triple Threat, An Inquiry into the Spiritual Gifts.
