I couldn't recommend it more highly!

By Jason Branson

This book from my wonderful friend Pat Schatzline is an absolute must-read for EVERYONE! This book is God 101. Pat writes as he preaches, backing up profound statements with scripture, and observations with proven facts. This book is an introduction to the true God. For many who have served Him without ever really understanding Him, get ready to have your heart opened to a God who is for you, and wants to prove

His love for you with every action. I was personally challenged to be a more compassionate leader while reading the pages of this book, realizing the tremendous compassion that my wonderful Heavenly Father has in leading and teaching me. This book is an absolute necessity for every person to read-whether you have been serving God for 45 minutes or 45 years. I promise you that this book will teach you something you didn't know, and encourage you in your Christian life.

Powerful & Needed

By ryan

Pat Schatzline has written a book that confronts the greatest lie that many people have taken as truth, that is that God is mad at them. This is a powerful book from cover to cover and is filled with personal stories from Pat's life that the reader can connect with as he carefully articulates the reality of God's great love. One cannot read this book without encountering the love of God. I have been blessed by it and strongly encourage every pastor and leader in the church today to make this book a part of his or her personal library.

..All this time I thought GOD was MAD at me. He Loves me more!

By MAC

Wonderful Words of Life!

I am a Spirit filled christian, however, I use to be an involved Church member.

For years I never thought I could ever meet the Church standards. Condemnation was all

I heard at the podium so I worked harder volunteered for everything...BUT when I met Jesus my whole life changed!

I believed the LIE no more.....Mercy and Grace took over. Pat's words of Truth helped me get a firm perspective of God's Love for ME.D
